three years till date for strict implementation of the penal provisions in the Cinematograph Act, 1952 in this regard ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (KUMARI GIRIJA VYAS) : (a) and (b) There have been newspaper reports from time to time regarding screening of uncertified video films in contravention of the provisions of the Cinematograph Act, 1952. Such contraventions include exhibiting portions not shown to the Central Board of Film Certification or showing portions ordered by the Board for deletion or showing bits of a blue film.

(c) The responsibility for enforcing the penal provisions of the Cinematograph Act, 1952 rests with the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. They have been requested, time and again, to strictly enforce the legal provisions. On 18-12-1991, a letter was sent to the Chief Ministers/Administrators of the States/Union Territories, as the case may be. The replies received from them indicate that most of them have, in turn, taken up the matter with the law enforcing agencies for appropriate action in this regard.

Putting ban on Pornographic Video Films

1262. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that the country has been flooded with Pornographic Video Films and the film certification Board is also passing such films with nude scenes which are adversely affecting the minds of young generation in the country; and

(b) if so, what action Government propose to put a ban and tackle the menace of porno-nude and obscene films in the country?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (KUMARI GIRIJA VYAS): (a) and (b) All films (including video films) intended for public exhibition in India are to be certified by the Central Board of Film Certification in accordance with the provisions of the Cinematograph Act, 1962 and the Guidelines issued thereunder. The Board examines and certifies such films as are found to be suitable for public exhibition. The Board does not certify pornography or any film which otherwise violates the guidelines issued by the Central Government under the Cinematograph Act, Exhibition of films, including video films, not duly certified by the Board, is an offence.

Newspapers have reported on occasions instances of films not shown in the form in which they are certified by the Board, but with interpolations. Such exhibition is an offence punishable under the Cinematoglaph Act, 1962. However, the responsibility for effective implementation of the provisions of the Act in this regard rests with the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. They have been repeatedly advised to strictly enforce these provisions of the law.
